1. Authorship

We confirm that every person listed as an author meets all four criteria of the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE): substantial contribution to conception or design, or to acquisition, analysis or interpretation of data; drafting or critically revising the work; final approval of the version submitted; and agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work. Nobody who meets these criteria has been omitted. All authors have approved the author order. Contributors who do not meet the criteria are named in the Acknowledgements with their permission. Any change to the author list after submission requires the written agreement of all authors and an explanation to the editor.

2. Originality and prior publication

We confirm that the manuscript is original, has not been published elsewhere in any language, is not under consideration by another journal, and does not duplicate or overlap with other published or submitted work, except as declared below. Text, data and images are our own or are properly cited and reproduced with permission.
